

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Application for Erasmus Mundus Scholarship Master's Programme in Human Rights Policy and Practice

Around 15 Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree (EMJD) scholarships are available for students from both Programme and Partner countries. Before applying for a scholarship, read through the regulations and eligibility criteria carefully.

Name:

Nationality:

Address:

Email:

Are you applying for the Erasmus Mundus Scholarship?

Yes

No

Please note that students from partner countries who have carried out their main activity (studies, work, etc.) for more than a total of 12 months over the last five years in any of the programme countries (EU + Turkey, Macedonia, Norway, Lichtenstein, Iceland) will be considered programme country applicants according to the 12-months rule. The five-year reference period for this 12-months rule is calculated backwards starting from the submission deadline (defined by the consortia) for applying for a student scholarship. The 12-months residency rule should not apply to the Partner Country candidates who for various reasons and under various circumstances have sought refuge and received a refugee status in a Programme Country.

Any eligible document submitted as proof of residence must have been issued within 12 months of the Consortium's application Erasmus Mundus scholarship application deadline.

To be considered for a scholarship, please submit:

- Proof of Nationality: Candidates with multiple nationalities must decide at application stage under which nationality they apply.
- Proof of Place of Residence: This must show where the applicant is living at the time of application. To be verified on the basis of the provision of the residence-related documents listed in the PRADO website. For example:
- A residence certificate issued in accordance with the candidate's municipality's normal registration rules and issued within 12 months before the submission deadline of applying for an EMJMD student scholarship, i.e. the consortium's official deadline for student application; a municipality certificate must be submitted in English or Spanish.
- A certificate from the candidate's place of work, study or training issued by the employer or institution in question issued within 12 months before the submission deadline of applying for an EMJMD student scholarship, i.e. the consortium's official deadline for student application; work/training/study certificates must be submitted in English, otherwise a certified English translation must be provided with the original.
- A document confirming the applicant's place of residence (in English) issued by a notary is also acceptable.

Please note that this application form must be submitted to UniversityAdmissions.se together with the rest of your documents.